

Telecommunications Services

EN Engineering offers a comprehensive portfolio of Telecommunications OSP/ISP engineering services. Our team of telecommunications professionals partners with clients to develop effective and efficient processes and procedures to achieve program objectives while conforming to the ever-evolving regulations and standards required in the utility industry.

Services

- Pole attachment applications
- Make-ready engineering
- Pole loading analyses
- Facilities and pole audits
- Department of Transportation (DOT) services
  - Plan review and conflict resolution
  - Budgeting and agreement assemblies
  - Reimbursement billing
- Permitting services (state, county, and city)
- Underground drawings
- Manhole verification services
- Right-of-Way research
- Easement acquisitions
- Mapping service/As-built documentation
- Consulting services
- Project management and coordination
- Storm damage assessment services
- Professional Engineer (PE) review and seal

